Numb. 12140.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday November 28, to Saturday December 2, 1780.

Whitehall, December 2, 1780.

MAJOR Harnage arrived in Town on Thurſday Night from New York, with Diſpatches to Lord George Germain, One of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, from Sir Henry Clinton, Knight of the Bath, and Major-General Phillips, of which the following are Extracts and Copies.

Extract of a Letter from Sir Henry Clinton to Lord George Germain, dated New-York, October 30, 1780.

I HAVE the Pleaſure to acquaint your Lordſhip, That the Fleet from England, under Convoy of His Majeſty's Ships Hyæna and Adamant, with Recruits and Stores for this Army, arrived here ſafe, after a favorable Paſſage, on the 15th Inſtant; and I have the Honor to tranſmit Returns of the State and Number of Recruits received by this Opportunity.

Major-General Leſlie ſailed from hence on the 16th, and I underſtand was ſeen entering the Cheſapeak on the 18th with a fair Wind, ſo that he would probably be on James River on the 20th, and conſequently interrupt Mr. Gates's Communication with Virginia.

I am perſuaded Lord Cornwallis, with the Aſſiſtance of the co-operating Corps under Major-General Leſlie, which I have given entirely to his Lordſhip's Orders, will purſue ſuch Meaſures as may oblige Mr. Gates to retire from thoſe Provinces. Lord Cornwallis was informed by me, previous to General Leſlie's ſailing upon this Expedition, of that General Officer's being to act from his Lordſhip's Orders; and I ſent him, at the ſame Time, a Copy of my Inſtructions to General Leſlie.

By the preſent Opportunity I have the Honor to tranſmit to your Lordſhip ſome original Diſpatches, which were lately intercepted in a Rebel Mail we were lucky enough to take entire, and contain Matters of no ſmall Importance. The Letters now ſent appear to be ſuch as are of the moſt Conſequence; thoſe that are leſs ſo ſhall be tranſmitted to your Lordſhip by the next Opportunity.

Waſhington has not as yet detached a ſingle Man to the Southward; and by all Accounts from General Arnold, Gates cannot have above 800 Continental Troops with him. General Waſhington ſtill remains at or near Tapaan.

The French have not moved from Rhode Iſland, but are adding Fortifications to that Place. Admiral Arbuthnot is watching Monſieur Ternay.

Major Harnage, of the 62d Regiment, will have the Honor of delivering my Diſpatches. This Officer's Services with the Northern Army will, I doubt not, inſure him your Lordſhip's Favor and Protection.

Copy of an intercepted Letter, addreſſed to "Meſſheck Weare, Eſq; Preſident of the Council of "New Hampſhire, Portſmouth."

THE under-written General Officers of the New England Lines think it our Duty to unite in a ſerious Addreſs to the ſeveral States to which we belong, to repreſent the diſtreſſing Condition of their Officers in the Army.

After having joined our Brother Officers of the Line at large in Two ineffectual Applications to Congreſs on the Subject, nothing but the pureſt Regard for the Safety of the Country could impel us to undertake a Third Eſſay of this Kind.

We beg Leave to premiſe, that a large Proportion of Officers engaged in Service with an Intention of making One Campaign only; neither they nor their Country thought of their becoming Soldiers for Life, or for a lengthy War; their Inclinations, Conſtitutions, and Circumſtances forbid it; but from a Conviction that their growing Experience was of Value and Importance to the Cauſe, they have been induced, againſt every Conſideration of a private Nature, to extend their Services from one Period to another, conſtantly flattering themſelves that every new Campaign would be the laſt, and bring about the wiſhed-for Era of their Return to the Boſoms of their Families and Friends.

The Perſeverance of the Army under Wants and Hardſhips excited the Admiration and Applauſe of the Country, until the Perſonal and Family Diſtreſſes of the former conſtrained them to remind their Fellow-Citizens of the Want, on their Part, of equitable and grateful Returns. From that Time many have feigned to entertain ill-grounded and impolitic Jealouſies of the Army. Some have even charged the Officers with acquiring Wealth, and aſpiring after Honors and Diſtinction, at the very Time when it has required all the Perſuaſion within the Compaſs of Language and Argument to retain them in Service.

A laudable Pride, ariſing from a juſt Senſe of the real Dignity of their Employments and Stations; an Ambition of Excelling, which has been eſteemed by all wiſe Nations as a Paſſion amiable in itſelf, and eſſential to the Authority that is neceſſary in every well conſtituted Army, have rendered the Officers of our Army opprobrious to too many in civil Life; ſome of whom, and even of thoſe in Power and of Influence, we fear, have laboured to counteract and debaſe the Principle, by denying the Officers not only a ſuitable Proviſion to maintain their Character, but by leaving them to want the Neceſſaries of Food and Clothing.

The Officers are ſenſible of the Public Embarraſſments, they have been attentive to the Adminiſtration of Civil as well as Military Affairs, and forward in ſuggeſting their Thoughts on every proper Occaſion, with an honeſt Zeal of promoting the Welfare of the Army and State. They do not look for Impoſſibilities from Government, but they wiſh to ſee that Effuſion of a liberal Heart which it is poſſible to exhibit in a State of Poverty. Generoſity is the Characteriſtic of a Soldier: For the Love of his Country he laviſhes Health and Life, for which no Equivalent can be given him: Should he not then be ſpared the Mortification of receiving his Pittance from a reluctant Hand?

The preſent Incomes of the Majority of the People who bear the Burthen of the Public Charges are proportioned to the encreaſed Prices of the Neceſſaries of Life. If it is objected that thoſe who ſubſiſt by fixt Salaries, or by the Intereſt of their Money, or have been ravaged by the Enemy, are as great Sharers, as the Army, in the common Calamity, it argues, perhaps, no more than that they ought to be favoured by ſome Exemptions, or that thoſe who have ſuffered leſs ſhould contribute to indemnify them.

Was the Caſe and Circumſtances of the Army fully underſtood by the People at large, we are perſuaded their Wiſdom and Senſibility would render their Situation eligible and happy as poſſible

The War appears to us as far from an honourable Iſſue as it has ever done Our Allies, however generous their Intentions, have not been able to give us the expected Aſſiſtance. Perhaps Providence, by repeated Diſappointments from this Quarter, deſigns to convince us that our Help and Salvation is, under God, to be derived from our own Exertions.

There is no Ground of Hope that the Enemy will relinquiſh their Object, 'till they find the Country prepared to defend itſelf; that is, until they ſee an Army oppoſed to them as regular as their own, and on as permanent Baſis. Our preſent Condition promiſes them the ſpeedy Accompliſhment of their Wiſhes. An Army conſiſting of a few inadequate Thouſands, almoſt deſtitute of every Public Supply; it's Officers, whoſe Tables once abounded with Plenty and Variety, ſubſiſting, Month after Month, on One bare Ration of dry Bread and Meat, and that, frequently, of the meaneſt Quality; their Families looking up to them for their uſual Support; their Children for the Education to which they once had a Title. Our Enemies know Human Nature too well to apprehend they ſhall have to contend long with an Army under ſuch Circumſtances.

In Faithfulneſs to our Country we make this Repreſentation, without the Solicitation or Knowledge of thoſe Officers who are the chief Subjects of it. They, we are aſſured, are generally determined to reſign their Commiſſions at the Cloſe of this Campaign; indeed it is impoſſible for them to continue, let their Virtue and Inclination be ever ſo great; and we cannot but expreſs to you, that we ſhall conſider the Loſs of the preſent Body of Officers as little ſhort of the Diſſolution of the Army.

If the Country is competent to it's Defence, without a regular Army, no more need be ſaid on the Subject; let our's progreſs, as it does, to its Diſſolution; but, on the other Hand, if an Army well appointed and provided is abſolutely neceſſary, the Subjects of it muſt be made eaſy and contented with their Situation; reaſonable Things will ſatisfy them.

The Officers have, we conceive, a juſt Claim to a handſome Support, according to their Rank, for the Time preſent, and to be ſecure of an After-Proviſion, to compenſate for the Loſs of Buſineſs, and to enable them, when the War is over, to live among their Brethren above Contempt. Without this Proviſion, a pitiful Penury, if not Want and Miſery, muſt be the unavoidable Portion of Men who have faithfully diſcharged their Duty as Officers and Citizens.

The Wages and Rations of the Officers, if paid in Specie, much leſs in Notes, are by no Means ſufficient to ſupport them with Decency and Comfort to themſelves, and Advantage to the Service: The Neceſſaries and Conveniencies of Life are raiſed to Two or Three Times their former Prices in Specie; and as to the Depreciation Notes (ſo called) they do not in Fact ſell for One Third their Nominal Value.

It is our Opinion, that nothing leſs than the Nominal Sum of the Wages and Rations, made good from Time to Time in its relative Value to the Property of the Country, will or ought to be ſatisfactory: This has been done for the New York Line; and as to a future Proviſion, our's aſk no more than what the laſt-mentioned State and the Southern States have done, or may do, for their reſpective Lines ſerving in the ſame Army with them. If it ſhould be thought beſt to vary the Mode of Payment, there will be no Objection. A Sum in Groſs will be more agreeable and advantageous to the Eaſtern Officers, and more conſonant to the Sentiments prevailing in their States, than an Annuity unaccompanied with Services: And here we take the Opportunity to mention that ſome States ſeem to be taking Meaſures to attach to themſelves the Affection of their own Troops; with what Views it is done we know not; but we ſhould ſuppoſe ſimilar Motives to the ſame Line of Conduct muſt exiſt in every State.

We beg Leave to add, as a Meaſure of Propriety and Juſtice, that a reaſonable Conſideration be paid to Officers, who, through Want of Health ſhall be obliged to retire before the End of the War.

Copy of an intercepted Letter from Lieutenant-Colonel Hamilton, Aid de Camp to General Waſhington, to Iſaac Sears, Eſq. at Boſton, dated October 12, 1780.

I WAS much obliged to you, my dear Sir, for the Letter which you did me the Favor to write me ſince your Return to Boſton. I am ſorry to find that the ſame Spirit of Indifference to publick Affairs prevails. It is neceſſary we ſhould rouſe, and begin to do our Buſineſs in earneſt, or we ſhall play a loſing Game. It is impoſſible the Conteſt can be much longer ſupported on the preſent Footing. We muſt have a Government with more Power. We muſt have a Tax in Kind. We muſt have a Foreign Loan. We muſt have a Bank on the true Principles of a Bank. We muſt have an Adminiſtration diſtinct from Congreſs, and in the Hands of ſingle Men under their Orders. We muſt, above all Things, have an Army for the War, and an Eſtabliſhment that will intereſt the Officers in the Service.

Congreſs are deliberating on our Military Affairs; but I apprehend their Reſolutions will be tinctured with the old Spirit. We ſeem to be Proof againſt Experience. They will however recommend an Army for the War, at leaſt as a primary Object. All thoſe who love their Country ought to exert their Influence, in the States where they reſide, to determine them to take up this Object with Energy. The States muſt ſink under the Burden of temporary Enliſtments, and the Enemy will conquer us by Degrees, during the Intervals of our Weakneſs.

Clinton is now ſaid to be making a conſiderable Detachment to the Southward. My Fears are high, my Hopes low.

We are told here, there is to be a Congreſs of the Neutral Powers at the Hague, for mediating a Peace

Peace. God ſend it may be true.—We want it; but if the Idea gets Abroad, 'tis Ten to One if we do not fancy the Thing done, and fall into a profound Sleep, till the Cannon of the Enemy awaken us next Campaign. This is our national Character.

I am, with great Regard,
Dear Sir
Your moſt obedient Servant,
(ſigned) A. Hamilton.

Copy of a Letter from Major-General Phillips to Lord George Germain, dated New-York, October 31, 1780

MY LORD,

SINCE I had the Honor of addreſſing your Lordſhip by the laſt Packet, a Negociation has begun betwee the Britiſh and American Commiſſaries General of Priſoners, which will terminate in the Exchange of all Officers, Priſoners of War, on both Sides, and which has already included ſuch Officers as were upon their Paroles in New York or in Great Britain. This Exchange likewiſe comprehends an Equivalent of Britiſh and German Soldiers. Priſoners of War, for thoſe of the Enemy now in our Poſſeſſion in this Place, who will be permitted to go out upon the Arrival of a ſimilar Number of our Privates at Elitabeth Town, the Place appointed for their Rendezvous.

His Excellency the Commander in Chief will make one more Effort, in the Courſe of the preſent Negociation, for the Releaſe of the Privates of the Troops of Convention: Should it fail, and, I am ſorry to obſerve to your Lordſhip, there is but a faint Proſpect of its ſucceeding, his Excellency will immediately proceed to put into Execution the Plan heretofore propoſed, and which was intimated from your Lordſhip o have received His Majeſty's Approbation, for a partial Exchange of the Officers.

Major General de Riedeſel and myſelf were exchanged on the 25th Inſtant, as you will perceive, my Lord, by the incloſed Copies of the Certificates of our Exchanges. The Commander in Chief has been pleaſed to put me in Orders to ſerve with this Army.

Sir Henry Clinton having directed me to tranſmit to your Lordſhip a Report of the preſent Tranſactions relative to Exchanges, I take great Pleaſure in having the Honor of communicating it to your Lordſhip: This Gratification ariſes as well from my own perſonal Feelings individually upon this happy Occaſion, as from the general Satisfaction a Completion of this humane Buſineſs muſt diffuſe in the Minds of thoſe of His Majeſty's Officers who will be releaſed from their Captivity.

Sir Henry Clinton has judged proper to direct, that the Troops of Convention be ſtill conſidered as under my Orders; and that all Reports concerning their Situation ſhould be ſent to me, in order to be laid before his Excellency as uſual. I take the Liberty of incloſing a Copy of Sir Henry Clinton's Letter to me, containing his Commands upon this Subject: I ſhall continue to purſue their Intereſts and Welfare with the ſame unwearied Zeal I have ever done.

I beg Leave to repeat to you, my Lord, the high and grateful Senſe I entertain of the many Favors conferred by your Lordſhip upon me and the Troops of Convention. The kind Protection and Solicitude your Lordſhip has conſtantly manifeſted, both to me perſonally, and to thoſe Troops in general claim our beſt Acknowledgements and warmeſt Thanks.

I entreat you will, my Lord, repreſent me to the King under the moſt perfect Attachment to His Royal Perſon and Government; as one whoſe Heart is replete with Gratitude for His Majeſty's moſt gracious Expreſſions of Approbation of my Conduct, and entirely devoted to His Majeſty's Service.

I have the Honour to be, &c
W. PHILLIPS.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 15th of November, 1780,

PRESENT,

The KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHereas the Time limited by His Majeſty's Order in Council of the 18th of Auguſt laſt, for prohibiting the Exporting out of this Kingdom, or carrying Coaſtwiſe, Gunpowder, Saltpetre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, will expire on the 23d of this inſtant November: And whereas it is judged expedient that the ſaid Prohibition ſhould be continued for ſome Time longer, longer, except in thoſe Caſes where (for the Benefit and Advantage of Trade, and for the Uſe and Defence of Ships trading to Foreign Parts, and of the Tranſports and Victualling Veſſels employed in His Majeſty's Service) His Majeſty, by His ſeveral Orders in Council of the 13th and 27th of October, and of the 6th and 22d of November, 1775, of the 5th and 19th of February, and the 23d of Auguſt and 25th of September, 1776, of the 16th of April, the 13th of Auguſt, and the 3d and 10th of October, 1777, of the 19th of June, the 7th and 26th of Auguſt, and the 10th of September, 1778, and of the 17th of May laſt, has thought proper to permit and allow the Exportation of, and carrying Coaſtwiſe, Gunpowder, Saltpetre, Arms and Ammunition, under certain Conditions and Reſtrictions mentioned in the ſaid Orders: His Majeſty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no Perſon or Perſons whoſoever (except the Maſter-General, Lieutenant-General, or Principal Officers of the Ordnance, for His Majeſty's Service) do, at any Time during the Space of Three Months, to commence from the ſaid 23d Day of this Inſtant November, preſume to tranſport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coaſtwiſe, any Gunpowder, Saltpetre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, or ſhip or lade any Gunpowder, Saltpetre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, on Board any Ship or Veſſel, in order to tranſporting the ſame beyond the Seas, or carrying the ſame Coaſtwiſe, except in the Caſes comprized within the aforementioned Orders in Council, without Leave or Permiſſion in that Behalf firſt obtained from His Majeſty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring and ſuffering the reſpective Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted by an Act paſſed in the 29th Year of His late Majeſty's Reign, entituled, "An Act "to impower His Majeſty to prohibit the Ex"portation of Saltpetre, and to enforce the Law "for empowering His Majeſty to prohibit the "Exportation of Gunpowder, or any Sort of "Arms and Ammunition; and alſo to impower "His Majeſty to reſtrain the carrying Coaſtwiſe "of Saltpetre, Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms "or Ammunition."—And the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, the Commiſſioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Maſter-General of the Ordnance, and His Majeſty's Secretary at War, are to give the neceſſary Directions herein, as to them may reſpectively appertain.

Steph. Cottrell.

St. James's, November 18, 1780.

WHEREAS it has been humbly repreſented to the King, that on Sunday the 15th Day of October laſt, the Dwelling-houſe of Mr. Thomas Dickins, Innholder, at Rainham in the County of Norfolk, was forcibly entered by about Fourteen Men, ſuppoſed to be Smugglers, who broke open every Door therein which they found locked, and ſwore they would take whatever Money they could find in the Houſe, and that they would murder the ſaid Mr Dickins, whom they ſearched for with that Intent, but not meeting with him, they departed, ſwearing that they would murder him the firſt Opportunity:

His Majeſty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Juſtice the Perſons concerned in entering the ſaid Houſe, breaking open the Doors, and the other daring and outrageous Proceedings above-mentioned, is hereby pleaſed to promiſe His moſt Gracious Pardon to any one of them, who will diſcover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, ſo that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a farther Encouragement, His Majeſty is hereby pleaſed to offer a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Perſon who ſhall apprehend, or cauſe to be apprehended, any one or more of the Perſons concerned in the Offences aforementioned, to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury upon the Conviction of any one or more of the ſaid Offenders.
